Warning: Website and WhatsApp messages misusing the name and details of Kendrah Louise Graham

28 October 2025

A profile on the website 'www.fiverr.com' and WhatsApp messages sent misusing the name and details of a genuine solicitor and purporting to offer legal services.

What is the scam?

The SRA has seen a profile on the freelance services marketplace Fiverr with the name 'Khendrah Louise'. This profile purports to be for an individual who is a 'licensed attorney and professional legal writer with expertise in drafting, reviewing and refining contracts'. The profile continues to state that the individual can assist in a variety of legal services and uses a photo that is not a photo of the genuine solicitor (see genuine details below).

The SRA has seen messages sent to a member of the public from the profile 'Khendrah Louise'. In these messages the individual misuses the name and SRA number of the genuine solicitor.

The SRA has also seen WhatsApp messages sent to a member of the public from this individual. The WhatsApp messages also misuse the name of the genuine solicitor and the name of a genuine firm of solicitors. These messages were sent from the phone number '+44 7367 053 202'.

Any business or transactions through the profile 'Khendrah Louise' on the website Fiverr or the phone number '+44 7367 053 202' is not undertaken by a firm or individual authorised and regulated by the SRA.

Is there a genuine firm or person?

The SRA authorises and regulates a genuine solicitor called Kendrah Louise Graham, whose SRA number is 385860. The genuine solicitor is employed at the firm of solicitors Keoghs LLP as a Legal Director.

The SRA also authorises and regulates a genuine firm of solicitors called Keoghs LLP.

The genuine Kendrah Louise Graham and Keoghs LLP have confirmed that they do not have any connection to the website, profile, WhatsApp messages or phone number referred to in the above alert.

What should I do?

When a firm's or individual's identity has been copied exactly (or cloned), due diligence is necessary. If you receive correspondence claiming to be from the above firm(s) or individual(s), or information of a similar nature to that described, you should conduct your own due diligence by checking the authenticity of the correspondence by contacting the law firm directly by reliable and established means. You can contact the SRA to find out if individuals or firms are regulated and authorised by the SRA and verify an individual's or firm's practising details. Other verification methods, such as checking public records (e.g. telephone directories and company records) may be required in other circumstances.
